- 7, Personal history/background

I have done my School up to 9th standard. In the year 1977 after my school I worked as a farmer helping my old parents. In 1979, I went to search for a job in Delhi, I worked in many different places. In the year 1982 I got a job in an American Embassy. In the same year I met Men-Tsee-Khang late Director Mr.Lobsang Samten la, He ask me if I can join Men-Tsee-Khang, they need a staff urgently. At the time I could not decide, because I am having a very good job in an American embassy which is very difficult to get, and I do not want to loose it in any case. later I decided to join Men-tsee-khang. Because With the burden of His Holiness Kindness, we are brought up under Tibetan Government and it is very important to serve our people. So I told the late Director that I will join TMAI, I joined Men-Tsee-Khang in 1982. I have worked in various Department in Head office. Later was transferred to different Branches of Men-Tsee-Khang in South India where I worked as Secretary cum accountant. In the year 2009 my mother past away and in 2012 my Dad past away.

We have two children, Our son who is at present learning a course in Sarah college, and our daughter is doing BSC nursing in Manipal college of nursing 4rth year in Mangalore Udupi. My wife is also working in Men-Tsee-Khang since 1992. At present working at Hunsur Branch. In 2018 April I got retired from Men-Tsee-Khang. I have served the Institute from the year 1982 July to 2018 March. Total Number of year served is 35 years and 9 months During my Stay in Men-Tsee-Khang I Tried my best to work hard and serve the Institute as much as I could. I still feel like serving.

With Regards and Prayer
